25 May 2011

Where has this month gone? Any ideas?

I don't know, April was a real mish-mash wasn't it with Easter, the school holidays and all those bank holidays too. Only just getting over that and here we are again at yet another bank holiday weekend, signalling the end of May! Not that I'm complaining; I need an excuse to take a day off as I've been particularly busy over these last couple of weeks, getting all the details in place for our next round of networking lunch meetings for June.

Summer Spectacular

Friday 8th July sees our Summer Spectacular Event at the Manchester Conference Centre. This will be our only event in July and it will bring all our five regional groups together under one big roof!

So pay attention – THIS IS OUR ONLY EVENT IN JULY !!!

Registrations have already started to flow in and a number of the exhibition tables have already been taken. Remember we only have 15 tables so if you want to grab one for your business, you'd better get a move on!

Manchester Conference Centre is located on Sackville Street and it formed part of the former UMIST campus. There is a large multi-storey car park next door with reasonable rates and both Piccadilly and Oxford Road train stations are just a 5 minute walk away.

Your day will include a goodie bag on arrival, lots of free networking time, a choice of workshops both in the morning and in the afternoon, a gorgeous lunch, a really entertaining guest speaker and a complimentary cocktail hour to round the day off. What a way to finish your week!

For those of you able to make a night of it in Manchester, the Conference Centre's Hotel is offering double room accommodation for just £75 (normal rate is £139). I don't live that far out of Manchester, but I am definitely going to take advantage of this superb rate and make a night of it at my favourite restaurant – hmmm!

REMEMBER TO BOOK YOUR PLACE BEFORE 31st MAY TO GET YOUR EARLY BIRD DISCOUNT OF £10.
