Fab Time Last Friday

Pam Dawson from Blue Orchid gave us all a lot to think about last Friday when she joined us for our meeting at Crewe Lyceum Theatre. We were all riveted by Pam's enthusiastic (and humorous) talk and notes were being taken enthusiastically as Pam shared idea after idea. Most of us were challenged in our business thinking and it was interesting to see people having their individual "aha moments"! A full report from the meeting can be found on our South Cheshire page.

And Finally.....

An Ode to English Plurals

We'll begin with a box, and the plural is boxes. But the plural of ox becomes oxen, not oxes.
One fowl is a goose, but two are called geese. Yet the plural of moose could never be meese.
You may find a lone mouse or a nest full of mice. But the plural of house is houses, not hices.
If the plural of man is always called men, then why shouldn't the plural of pan be called pen?
If one is a tooth and a whole set is teeth, then how come the plural of booth isn't beeth?

Now, one may be that, and three would be those. In the plural a hat would never be hose.
We speak of a brother and also of brethren, and though we say mother, we'd never say methren!
And whilst the masculine pronouns are he, his and him. Imagine the feminine – she, shis and shim!!
